

Jeff Davis was born and raised in Richmond, Virginia where he developed a love for history (American and European) while touring the historic battlefields of both the Revolutionary and Civil Wars.

Jeff's father passed away when he was 16 and so he completed his high school education at Valley Forge Military Academy in Pennsylvania. After graduation, he joined the United States Navy and had the opportunity to travel to Europe and Japan at a young age. He served in the Navy for 22 years, retiring in 1993 as a Chief Petty Officer Yeoman. After retirement, he continued his education, earning a B.A. in European History and a law degree. He plans to continue his education and earn a masters degree in history. He is also a certified paralegal, although he is not currently practicing.

Jeff enjoys bowling, playing basketball, reading, and classic films. He lives in Concord with his wife, Donna, who is a probation officer supervisor for Contra Costa County. He and Donna have been married for 22 years and they have four children and one grandchild.