

Darrell Parcher was born in Portland, Oregon and is a graduate of Oregon State University. He lived in Oregon until 1970 when his employer transferred him to California. Although Darrell still loves Oregon, he doesn't miss the rain and so he does not think that he will ever move back there again.

Darrell spent four years in the Air Force and then entered the business world, serving as a credit and accounting manager with Montgomery Ward, Blue Cross of California, and Travelers Insurance Co. and then the last eight years of his career as the business manager of the School of Education at St. Mary's College.

Darrell is married and has four daughters, thirteen grandchildren, and one great grandson. He is a sports fan and has rooted for the A's and 49ers for forty years.
