Getting to Know SIR

Ron Morrison

I was born in Whittier, California. I never lived there nor did I know Dick Nixon. I spent my early years in South Gate and Huntington Park, Southern California. I graduated from Huntington Park High in 1945. I was inducted into the army in April, 1945 and sent by the Signal Corps to Camp Roberts and then to Fort Benning, Georgia for Radio School. Then it was to Korea for 19 months with the 24th Corps Headquarters in Seoul. In my free time, I played ping-pong like crazy and took piano lessons from Professor Studenez, a White Russian who had a music school behind the Catholic church. It was a lovely country, even with the riff-raff on Bun Chong Street, and the honey carts everywhere. I lived in an old school dorm and sold cigarettes at the local laundry black market for 200 yen (about ten dollars). Eventually, I was in the Land Teletype Section for all of Korea. I became Section Leader because everyone else went home.

When I came home, I went to Pasadena City College and then followed my then-girl friend to Cal Berkeley. I missed my mother and friends but "lived big" on $40 a month. I majored in Transportation and went to work for Consolidated Freightways for 42 years. I met Joyce at Berkeley, married her, and we are now working on 52 wonderful years. We have 5 wonderful daughters, all are married and we now have 8 grandkids.

I have been retired for 12 years and have been in SIR for 10 years. I am having a ball with bowling, Garden Club, Song Sirs and cribbage when I get the time. I am now singing with the Diablo Valley Masterworks Chorale (for the last 23 years) and a local church choir which will be singing in New York's Carnegie Hall in June. Who says that retirement is boring? There just aren't enough hours in the day!

Bowling

Gus Edwards

Branch 146 bowlers have stumbled their way to the half-way point of the 12-team, 3-person summer league. With eight weeks remaining, the cleverly named Team 5 (John Miller, Tom Lindeland, Maurice Mitchell) are five points out of first place. Team 6 (Dave Rasmussen, Larry Mitchell, Gus Edwards) are in the middle of the pack. On a positive note, Larry's average is second overall.

FYI, there are three upcoming tournaments. They are Fireside Lanes (Citrus Heights) on July 5th and 6th; deadline is July 5th. Nu Generation Lanes (Yuba City) on July 18th and 19th; deadline is July 15th. And the biggie is The Silver Legacy at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno on August 15th, 16th, and 17th; deadline is August 6th.

Cooking

Don Nunn

1st Monday at various members' homes.

On June 6, we were fortunate to have Sir Al Milano prepare his wonderful Pesto Linguine!

We were given a lesson along with the recipe for truly delightful and heavenly sauce (Yes it is loaded with garlic!). A super salad and French bread made for a feast straight from Italy. A super job Sir Al.

We missed Sir Warren Boero as he was most responsible for the founding of our cooking guys. Al had a place set for Warren and we toasted him with some special wine. Bon Voyage Sir Warren.

Next month we will meet on July 11th will be at the home of Sir Charlie Kiser. Call Charlie for the time of the meeting and to confirm your attendance.

Cribbage

Al Tufo

2nd Wednesday at 12:30 hosted by different members.

On June 8, 2005, the Cribbage Club was hosted by Langley Erickson. We were able to get in four (4) Derby Tournaments as there were only four players this time which allowed this to happen. Dan Meckfessel was hot as a firecracker. There was just no stopping him. Dan won three of the races going away. The Italian Stallion managed to win one race and come in second in two others. Barney Meade also managed to place second in two of the races. Langley Erickson decided to play the ultimate host and allow his guests to receive all the glory. What a guy! Next month will be hosted by Howie King, if he is able. If not, Dan will host the Cribbage Club instead.

Cooking Too

Rich Hanford

2nd Monday at various members' homes.

Below, Chef Bob Yolland demonstrates the delicate art of pounding chicken thin. He is being assisted by John Demos, Bill Cammerer and Rich Hanford. This interactive session produced a superb chicken scaloppini, the centerpiece of a delicious lunch. In addition to a fine meal, we all left with new skills and a great recipe.

Fishing

Sal Costanza

July's feature fishing trip is to Davis Lake, known for it's great trout fishing (and northern pike!!!)

Away Golf

Jim Baldrige

Congratulations to the winners at the Lone Tree Antioch Away Golf outing. 1st place Bill Boyd, 2nd place Stu Somerville, 3rd place Russ Bliese; yours truly took closest to the pin.

A reminder to Sirs Dick DeVoe, Olaf Johansson and Pablo Chavez, who placed in the first level of qualifiers for Division 4 at Franklin Canyon on May 20. Check with Dick Richmond as selected players from that tournament will be playing the next qualifying round at Boundary Oak on July 13.

Unfortunately, the June 8 SIR Ladies Invitational at the Vitners Course in Yountville was canceled due to rain. Sir Lynn Freeman says the original checks have now been shredded and he plans to solicit new funds when the tournament is re-scheduled in late August or early September. If you paid directly by check simply cancel that entry in your checkbook. If your entry fee was included with another Sir who sent in the check, work out a refund or re-submission with that individual. Lynn will let us know how payment for the rescheduled event is to be done.

The Area 2 Team Scramble event is scheduled for July 22 at Franklin Canyon. This event will serve as the Away Golf outing for July. As of this writing six (6) Branch 146 teams were planning to play.

For your long range calendar: We received the contract from Silverado Country Club in Napa for the 2006 SIR Branch 146 Annual Invitational Tournament. This is an outing for Sirs, couples and friends. The cost will be $46 for Sirs competing in the prize fund and $44 for guests or those not competing for prizes. It will be a 144 player 12:00 shotgun on Monday April 3, 2006 on the South Course. This is a great price considering the rack rate for this course is $150.

Questions: Call Jim Baldrige 925-689-9232 or e-mail to jimjudy39@aol.com

HYDROGENATED OIL IN PEANUT BUTTER

Peanut butter is high in heart-healthy monounsaturated fat. But, if you read the labels on most jars, you will see "partially-hydrogenated vegetable oil" which means "trans fat" Tufts University nutritionists say that this should not be of concern, explaining that most of the hydrogenation is "complete" not "partial," which turns the fat into saturated fat rather than trans-fat.

While saturated fat does raise blood cholesterol, the additional saturated fat from hydrogenation is very small, adding only 1 gram per two-tablespoon serving. Even natural peanut butter (the kind you stir to mix oil and solids) contains two grams of saturated fat.

That means the total number of grams of saturated fat per serving is 3 as opposed to 2. Most of the fat remains monounsaturated.

FEELING EDGY?

Stress is part 'n parcel of life in today's world. So what can you do to cope? Here are some tips from Men's Health (July/August 2004) on how to smooth out the rough places:

Put a green dot on your phone to remind you to take a deep breath before you answer. (Susan Siegel, Program of Integrative Medicine, UNC)

Spend quality time with your dog. Pets provide more stress relief than the two-legged varieties.

Shut up and smile. Listen more than you talk.

Run fast. Bike hard. Punch the heavy bag. High intensity workouts can lower stress levels. (University of Missouri at Columbia study)

Hit the sauna after your workout. A relaxing sense of accomplishment. (Oklahoma State University study)

Say you're sorry. An apology goes a long way to easing tension on both ends. (Charles Emery, PhD, Ohio State University)

Forgive. It's one of the best ways to de-stress. (Charles Thorensen, PhD, Stanford University)

Find a shoe-shine guy. You'll also have great looking shoes (Michael Nuccitelli, PsyD, Brewster, NY)

Stop checking your portfolio. A Hong Kong study found that the closer you watch your stocks, the more stressed out you are.

Add ten minutes to your ETA. If you get there early, you've gained 10 minutes.

Find the good. Look for something to appreciate in every situation.

Go for a swim. Climb a mountain. Any workout will do.

In Memoriam Warren Boero 1928-2005

Warren left us in the early morning of May 31st with his family at his side. He is survived by his wife, Gwenn, four children and eleven grandchildren. A celebration of his life was held on June 4th at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

Warren enjoyed the outdoors and eagerly shared these outings with his family. He loved to fish and often traveled to the Sierras. He made numerous hunting and fishing trips to Alaska with his two sons. In the 70's, Warren, Gwenn and their two younger daughters began a series of annual house boating and water skiing trips to Lake Shasta.

Warren had a distinguished career with Bank of America that spanned 38 years. After retirement, he joined SIR Branch 146 in January of 1990. He will be remembered by fellow Sirs as enjoying golf, cooking (he was instrumental in organizing the original Cooking Group), worldwide travel and lots of fishing. He served as the Big Sir in 1997.

Warren was active in his church and a pillar of integrity in his career. He was a loving father, a great people manager, a good fisherman, a great dancer and a fabulous cook. He endured his fight with leukemia with courage and grace and left this world a richer place because of his humor and kind affection for his friends.
